Young professional Chinese buyers between the ages of 25-40.

Audience

Lack of post-sale service is the number one reason they are switching brands within the luxury market.

Customer Needs

Lack of brand loyalty among younger generation customers is affecting potential return purchases.

Business Problem

Enhancing the ownership experience through personalized service.

Opening

Pitch

Our project is a service application, designed for young Maserati owners (25-40), which allows them to experience personalized luxury post-sales service to increase brand loyalty and result in future return purchases and sustainable business growth.
